

Our Values

Everyone is of equal value. We all matter, we all have something to contribute, we will work hard to find your gifts and talents.

Everyone is unique. We are different and we celebrate difference.

Everyone has the ability to develop. We inspire change and create opportunity for growth.

Everyone has the right to enjoy valuable relationships. We create opportunities to connect, we care about community, our strength comes from relationships.

Everyone has the right to lead the life they choose. We lead by example, we do the right thing, we will overcome barriers and stand by you.

